

PRESIDENTIAL INAUGURATION

The Presidential Inauguration is a significant event that takes place every four years when a new President of the United States is sworn into office. The inauguration ceremony, held on January 20th, marks the peaceful transfer of power from one administration to the next. It includes the President-elect taking the oath of office, a public address, and various celebrations in Washington, D.C

